

CTAHR Senate Bylaws Proposed Amendments

The size of the CTAHR Senate fluctuates according to the number of faculty in the college. Consequently, filling committees becomes challenging as the faculty numbers decrease. This proposal addresses this issue by setting minimum numbers for committees. Proposed deletions are ~~struckout~~ and additions are underlined.

Section 3. Elections Committee.

1. Membership. An Elections Committee of ~~three~~ a minimum of two members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee from among eligible faculty as defined in Charter Article I, Section 2.

Section 4. Extension Committee

1. Membership. An Extension Committee of ~~six~~ a minimum of four members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee and shall be composed of one extension representative from each county and two members from the faculty-at-large.

Section 5. Instruction Committee

1. Membership. An Instruction Committee of ~~six~~ a minimum of four members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee. The Committee shall be composed of Senators who express a preference for this Committee and faculty-at-large from among eligible faculty as defined in Article I, Section 2.

Section 6. Personnel Committee.

1. Membership. A Personnel Committee of ~~six~~ a minimum of four members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee from among eligible faculty as defined in the Charter Article I, Section 1. The Committee shall be composed of Senators who express a preference for this Committee and faculty-at-large. Department chairpersons and other administrative officers are not eligible for this Committee.

Section 7. Research Committee

1. Membership. A Research Committee of ~~six~~ a minimum of four members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee. The Committee shall be composed of Senators who express a preference for this Committee and faculty-at-large from among eligible faculty as defined in Article I, Section 2.