

Foodborne Illness and Hawaii Law: Two Perspectives

Drew Falkenstein
Attorney
Marler Clark LLP, PS
6600 Columbia Center
701 Fifth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104
Office 206 346 1876
Email dfalkenstein@marlerclark.com

Abstract:

My talk will focus on legal, non-regulatory issues central to ensuring the production and service of safe food. Specifically, I will discuss the technical requirements of a legal claim for foodborne illness in Hawaii, which should provide incentive and education to the service portion of the audience, as well as immunity/liability issues for environmental health professionals, which will be directed toward health officials in the audience.