

Watercress Decline

Fig. 1 Photograph of healthy growth.

Fig. 2 Early symptoms exhibited on terminal growth. Mild chlorosis noted.

Fig. 3 Evident Yellowing noticed with stunting and narrowing of leaves.

Fig. 4 Severe chlorosis with multiple shoots and upright growth habit. Infected plants continue to decline and eventually melt away.

Fig. 5 Infected patch with empty pockets.

Plantain

Parrot's feather

Fig. 6 & 7
Weeds found to be infected with the Phytoplasma.