Agricultural Development in the American Pacific Strategic Plan 2002-2007

Mission Strategic Initiatives Goals Objectives Actions 1. Directors annually update institution staffing plans and identify staff for training Vision: ADAP enables -2. As requested by Directors, reexamine the scholarship/ 1. To increase the 1. By 2002 improve stipend level and timely distribution of funds to sustainable abilities of current professional students to create a more effective scholarship ADAP-affiliated staff credentialing of faculty. environments, diverse mechanism. and provide extenstaff, students, and economies, and strong -3. Directors and Home Office continually identify sive training for potential students to additional sources of funding and knowledge for communities. potential future improve faculty faculty/staff development (e.g. CSREES, IPA, etc.) ADAP-affiliated staff, retention and increase \_4. Directors investigate additional funding sources for new faculty hires students, and student education potential Land Grant explore the possibility of a "near" international educastudents. ADAP advances tion program for ADAP institution students/faculty and the viability and partners security of Pacific island agriculture and communities through collaborative 6. Directors annually review resource allocations with programs that are 2. Continually work to respect to project outcomes culturally optimize administrative 1. To formalize the structure and operations appropriate, 7. Directors annually review administrative structure for 5 Pacific Land 2. To increase socially acceptable, possible improvements Grant instituefficiency of economically tions as a delivery of ADAP--3. Continuously update viable, and viable, recogrelated programs. internal and external environmentally 8. Home Office and interested ADAP faculty continunizable entity. electronic communication ously improve the ADAP website sustainable. capabilities 9. Directors . . . call for proposals, and ·10. document the impacts of completed R/E/O projects -11. use ADAP resources to maintain updated information 3. To facilitate the 12. encourage faculty to participate in developing RFP 4. Develop new integrated development of research/education/ projects that meet the outreach (R/E/O) programs needs of our Pacific Island agriculture and 13. involve stakeholders and users in the development of community systems. information 4. By 2005 increase articula-Establish the required 14. Directors establish a working group to identify tion between academic network at the Land Grant potential courses for articulation programs in the 5 ADAP and University level  $\infty$ institutions

Page 2. - Agricultural Development in the American Pacific Strategic Plan 2002-2007

Strategic Initiatives Objectives Mission Goals Actions 15. Directors to work independently to To use ADAP to 7. Increase matching make contacts on an on-going basis. Vision: ADAP enables leverage additional resources from non--16. All ADAP maintain and expand ADAP's connections to ADAP sources sustainable resources similar organizations such as the SPC and IRETA. environments, diverse economies, and strong -17. All Directors use various existing advisory group(s) to discuss issues and formulate potential solutions. communities. 18. To involve university officials in these talks so they understand the Land Grant philosophy and way of To facilitate the collaboration. development of 8. To involve stakeholders learning commuin issue identification 19. ADAP will arrange for meetings with Land Grant ADAP advances nities through institution presidents, board members, and others, to and solution developactive partnering the viability and discuss issues of mutual interest (e.g. articulation, inment with stakeholders security of Pacific state tuition fees, etc.) then sign an MOU outlining potential collaborations. island agriculture and communities 20. ADAP directors will make an effort to attend PHALPS 2. Provide leaderthrough ship for inmeetings. collaborative creased -21. All ADAP share newsletters and other periodic media collaboration programs that are and partnerships with other ADAP and non-ADAP institutions. culturally that address -22. Home Office develop a database/website of Pacific appropriate, important Island projects (projects, publications, funding socially acceptable, 9. To strengthen agricultural and sources). economically linkages among the community .23. ADAP directors to bring a group of people together viable, and 5 ADAP institutions issues in the from the 5 Land Grants to discuss distance education environmentally Pacific and articulation. sustainable. -24. Continue to promote the delivery of programs and classes via electronic systems (VTC, internet, PDA -25. Directors continue to meet 2 times a year: 1 meeting (summer) in conjuction with the Western Regional Directors meeting. -26. ADAP encourage faculty to develop at least 1 regional research project. 7. To provide leadership -27. Directors, Home Office and interested parties explore in coordinating ways of providing education materials over electronic or agriculture and related other means (i.e. distance education such as ADEC) activities —28. ADAP will continue to provide library services; Agri. Literature & Document delivery services to the Pacific region. -29. Directors bring issue priorities to ADAP meetings. 10. To convey priority 30. Directors present issues at National and Regional issues to potential meetings. partners 31. Directors, Home Office, ADAP faculty invite representatives of NAPIAP, T-STAR, IPM, SPC, IRETA and 9 others to ADAP workshops and meetings.