INFORMATION SEMINAR

PROTECTING FARMLAND AND PROMOTING AGRICULTURE:
TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES FROM ACROSS THE NATION

with

BOB WAGNER
Assistant Vice President
American Farmland Trust (AFT)

WHAT: “Protecting Farmland and Promoting Agriculture: Tools and Techniques from Across the Nation” will be the topic of a presentation by Bob Wagner, one of the nation’s premier authorities on agricultural land preservation and agricultural development. You are invited to attend this community seminar to discuss the latest trends in agricultural preservation; private property rights; and agricultural land preservation successes and failures.

WHEN/WHERE:

Maui:    Thursday, May 15, 2003  6:00 to 8:00 p.m.
         Maui Community College, Ka Lama Building Room 103
         310 Kaahumanu Avenue, Kahului

Honolulu: Friday, May 16, 2003  6:00 to 8:00 p.m.
         State Capitol #325 (entry from the basement)

Hawaii:  Monday, May 19, 2003   6:00 to 8:00 p.m.
         Cooperative Extension Office
         875 Komohana Street, Hilo

         Tuesday, May 20, 2003   6:30 to 8:30 p.m.
         Cooperative Extension Office
         79-7381 Mamalahoa Highway, Kealakekua

Kauai:   Wednesday, May 21, 2003  5:00-7:30 p.m.
         Kauai Community College
         3-1901 Kaumualii Highway, Lihue
         Office of Continuing Education & Training,
         Classroom/Elections Bldg.

Founded in 1980, American Farmland Trust is a private, nonprofit organization that works to protect the nation’s strategic agricultural resources, assisting in the development of collaborative programs that stop the loss of productive farmland and promote farming practices that lead to a healthy environment.

SPONSORS: Office of Planning, State Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism
Hawaii State Department of Agriculture
College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources,
University of Hawaii

with support from
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
U.S. Department of Commerce