

*The Department of Natural Resources & Environmental Management at UH Mānoa
Presents the Fall 2016 Seminar Series*

Scaling Up Restoration Efforts in the Pacific Region

Date	Seminar Speaker	Topic/Title (W 3:30 – 4:20 p.m.)
9/14	Eben Paxton (USGS), Jared Underwood (USFWS), Jason Misaki (DOFAW)	Wetland restoration in the Pacific Islands
9/21	Zac Forsman (DAR/HIMB)	Scaling up coral reef restoration
9/28	Paul Krushelnycky (UH) & panel	Restoration and invertebrate conservation
10/5	Steve Hess (USGS)	Hawaii's invasive mammals: Establishment, takeover, and ecosystem restoration through eradication
10/12	Kim Peyton (DAR)	Can Hawaiian estuaries bounce back? Invasion, resilience and finding better shock absorbers
10/19	Lindsay Young, Eric Vanderwerf (PRC)	Using translocation to restore Hawaii's birds
10/26	Clay Trauernicht (UH/NREM)	Size matters: challenges and opportunities for post-fire response on Pacific Islands
11/2	Donnie Rayome (USFS)	Economic Analysis of Key Ecosystem Services in a Hybrid Wet Forest Restoration Experiment
11/9	James Leary (UH/NREM), panel Co-hosted as an HCA Talk Story Event	Invasive Plant Species Management: Protecting Watersheds One Plant at a Time with Extreme Prejudice
11/16	J.B. Friday (UH/NREM), panel	Bringing Back Koa
11/23	Jeremy Ringma (UH/NREM)	Optimizing Fencing for Conservation Purposes
11/30	Stephanie Yelenick (USGS)	Successes and Limitations in Using Koa to Restore Native Ecosystems in Hawaii
12/7	Suzanne Case (DLNR)	Policy & Restoration in Hawaii Location: Biomed 103

~ All are welcome ~

Join us in St. Johns Rm. 11 at 3:30 p.m. Refreshments will be provided.