TROPICAL FRUIT GROWERS

22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference
Producing Quality Fruit for the Future of Hawaii

Call For Posters!

Conference and Trade Show

The 22nd Annual Hawaii International Tropical Fruit Growers Conference will bring together farmers, growers, researchers and fruit enthusiasts from across the State of Hawaii and the world in a celebration of tropical fruit. This year's theme is "Producing Quality Fruit for the Future of Hawaii", and to help in producing quality fruit we would like to display and celebrate novel research of students, researchers and the private sector. Please participate by submitting and displaying a poster during the conference.

When: September 13th - 16th, 2012

Where: University of Hawaii - Campus Center
